

Join us for our Iowa County Entrepreneur Club March 24th.

How to make social media work for you.

This Entrepreneur Club meeting will focus on ways to make social media work for your business or business idea. We have a great speaker, followed by an offer of free local support to set up your own social networking sites.

Our presenter for the next meeting on March 24 is Wendy Soucie of Wendy Soucie Consulting. (www.wendysoucie.com)

Wendy is a connected and innovative social media and marketing professional. Her focus is to help business integrate and apply social media strategies across their organization from product development, customer service/support, human resource management, to sales and marketing.

Wendy is co-administrator of the Social Media Breakfast – Madison, and will be serving as the incoming 2011 Chair for Madison Social Media Club Board.

Following this presentation area businesses and entrepreneurs can receive FREE help setting up their own social networking sites, thanks to the Dodgeville High School Business Education Department.

Mark your calendars for Wed. April 14:

The Dodgeville High School Business Education department is sponsoring an open house night to assist community members with setting up social networking accounts for Facebook, Twitter, and LinkedIn. We will provide the computers, digital cameras, and personal assistance to set up the accounts. And best of all, it's FREE!

Wednesday, April 14 - 5:00 pm - 7:00 pm

If you have a business in the Iowa County area or are thinking about starting your own enterprise, social media is a great way to expand your market presence. Come and learn and have the chance to ask all those social media questions you always wanted to ask.

No matter if you are a new food entrepreneur planning on working in our new Wisconsin Innovation Kitchen or a local artist or an entrepreneur/innovator working in one of our many great regional firms, you will learn something from Wendy's presentation.

Wendy is a social media pro coming to our meeting March 24th to help you grow your idea. Come join us and bring a friend!

There will be a social hour beginning at 5:30 and the meeting will begin at 6 PM. The location is at the Stonefield Apartments, 407 E. Madison St., Dodgeville WI. The event is free to the public.

Networking among attendees will be encouraged in the evening's program. "Our goal is to grow our network of entrepreneurs, small businesses, innovators and those that support them in the Iowa County area" said Rick Terrien, Executive Director of ICAEDC.

The Iowa County Area Entrepreneurs Club is an informational forum where entrepreneurs, inventors, existing businesses, new businesses and people thinking about starting their own businesses can come together to encourage each other and share challenges and encouragement. The group meets on a monthly basis, usually the fourth Wednesday of the month. More information about the group is available on the ICAEDC website at www.iowacountyedc.org/5100b.html or by emailing info@iowacountyedc.org or calling Rick Terrien at 608 930 2000.
