

Join us for our Iowa County Entrepreneur Club June 23th. 6 PM

June meeting: Food business opportunities in the new Wisconsin Innovation Kitchen.

Summers are generally a slow time for Entrepreneur Club meetings, but for those people thinking about a food business in the new Wisconsin Innovation Kitchen things are heating up.

Are you looking for ideas to expand your existing food business? Are you thinking about ways to start your own small food business?

The next Iowa County Entrepreneur Club meeting will be held at the new Innovation Kitchen in Mineral Point. Wed. June 23 beginning at 6 PM. This meeting will focus on 'Food business opportunities in the Wisconsin Innovation Kitchen'. The discussion will be facilitated by Rick Terrien, Iowa County Area Economic Development and Annette Pierce, Food Service Director at the Wisconsin Innovation Kitchen.

There are many ways to grow or start profitable food businesses. Stop in to get a look at the new facility, discuss possibilities, ask questions and hear some great ideas.

The Wisconsin Innovation Kitchen is a state of the art commercial food processing facility that will be available to process recipes for you on an artisan commercial scale. The kitchen is also available on a rental basis for people to process their own recipes in a state-inspected kitchen (appropriate certifications required).
